

Marlborough Gardening Association Membership

As you may already know there are new Data Protection Regulations (GDPR) coming in at the end of May 2018 so in an effort to make the MGA compliant we have added a paragraph and a signature line to the membership form. This means that from 2018 onwards everyone MUST sign their agreement to our holding your data and using it to communicate with you either by post, email or other means. We confirm we will not share your data with any third party. If you are a joining as a couple both partners need to sign agreement.
